

RADFORD.

THE CHRIS COXE TRIAL.

George Rutter Arraigned For Trial.

ROANOKE TIMES BUREAU, RADFORD, VA., Nov. 28.

The trial of George Rutter for complicity in the murder of Chris Cox, was begun yesterday before Magistrate Boswell. Mollie Graham being sworn, testified that Rutter had told her he had killed one and would kill another. In the absence of an important witness the case was postponed until to-day.

Lillie Blackwell was the first witness, her testimony being in substance the same as Mollie Graham. H. S. and Lee Lucas and J. P. Fisher each testified that on the night Chris Cox was murdered George Rutter rode behind them from the rock road to Brooklyn, passing through Radford during the fireworks display, and that they left him asleep on a pallet on the floor with Floyd Collins at Uriah Graham's house about two o'clock in the morning. Floyd Collins was next called but the officers reported they had been unable to find him. The case was then continued until Monday and Rutter remanded to jail.

Too Much for the Pop.

J. H. Nowberry went over to the Commercial House last night to get a bottle of "pop" and was charged thirty-five cents for the same. Hesitating about paying that much for his drink, he was pounced upon by Oliver and Thompson, the former slapping him and the latter attempting to strike him. At the same time some one threw whiskey on him. Warrants were sworn out for his assailants' arrest. The case came up for trial this morning before his honor, Mayor Sullivan, but was postponed until Monday at 12 o'clock. Oliver and Thompson gave bail for their appearance.

The Pipe Works.

Everything around and about the pipe works denotes activity and an eagerness to begin the manufacture of pipe at the earliest possible day. Mr. W. T. Partridge, the efficient manager, is doing everything in his power to have the plant completed and ready for active work about December 15. They are receiving on an average four cars of pig iron per day, which is being stored. Two hundred and eighty-seven hands are now employed, which will be increased to four hundred when active operation is begun.

BREVITIES.

Drawings and specifications are now in the hands of contractors for bids for a magnificent brick church to be erected for the Methodist Episcopal Church in the western section. The plans and specifications were prepared by W. A. Hayes, of Minneapolis, Minn.

Alvah H. Martin, Charles R. Nash and Virginia Butt, of Norfolk, were in Radford yesterday looking after the interests of the Riverview Land Company.

The new schedule for the Norfolk and Western will go into effect Sunday, December 6.

La grippe has struck Radford and several cases are reported by physicians.

Messrs. J. T. Stump & Bro., in addition to six contracts now on hand, have just added two more for handsome store houses on First street, in the western section.

Mayor Sullivan has been busily engaged for several days taking a census of the two sections for the purpose of securing a city charter and hustings court for Radford.

The sad intelligence was received by Mr. T. F. Kohlhausen to-night that his son, F. K. Kohlhausen, who has been quite sick in the hospital at San Antonio, Texas, for the past two weeks, was dead. This is doubly a sad bereavement for the reason that he was reported better and his devoted parents were expecting his return to-night. The only son, he was the pride of his mother and father, both of whom are prostrated with grief.

J. F. Givens, with his little son, of Buena Vista, is visiting in the eastern section.

Mrs. J. H. Dudley is very sick at her home in the eastern section. Her daughter, who is away attending school, was telegraphed for to-day.

ENOUGH OF SUCH WORK.

To the Editor of THE TIMES: I have read Mr. McDonald's letter of the 28th inst. It is surprising that that man would have the audacity to publish in this city such a ridiculous statement. In an attempt to justify himself before an outraged public, he claims the fact that his building has stood without settling of the foundation should be sufficient evidence of its workmanship.

When McDonald obtained his contract for that building from this city, it was expected that he would comply with the specifications in workmanship and material. It is an established fact by the report of inspectors that both are defective, and sufficiently so, to render the building unsafe. It would be doubtful if Mr. McDonald's proposed bond was entertained if it might not prove as unsatisfactory as his workmanship. It is fortunate for the city that we escaped having any further dealings with this man. The exposure of his shameful practices in the building in question, and the unsatisfactory result of the courthouse job, of which he was the contractor, is quite sufficient for the city of Roanoke of Mr. McDonald's work.

Great Performance at the Opera House.

"Said Pasha" was sung at the Grand Opera House last night by the Grau Opera Company. Quite a large audience was present, and everybody was delighted with the handsome presentation of this charming opera. The costumes were especially gorgeous and magnificent. The opera is filled with bright and catchy airs, and the singers were often encored and were loudly applauded.

Will appear in this city to-morrow night.

A Sight of Tragedy.

It always gives us pleasure to announce the appearance of R. D. MacLean and Marie Prescott. They have now reached the top round of the ladder of fame and their appearance is looked upon as the event of the theatrical season. They will play Spartacus on Wednesday night, December 2nd, and Othello on Thursday night.

They will, no doubt, be welcomed by full houses, as they well deserve. Mr. MacLean's equal in the role of Othello has not been seen since the days of the great Forrest.

Walsak's New Dyeing House.

E. WALSAK has opened up a new dyeing and cleaning establishment at the corner of Commerce and Campbell streets, where he invites all his old patrons, as well as others needing his services, to call. He will dye and clean clothes and the finest fabrics, guaranteeing satisfactory work and the lowest prices. He will dye a suit for $2, and for cleaning a suit he only charges $1.50. Goods will be called for and delivered free of charge. Read advertisement and call and see him.

THE finest things are often found in the smallest packages. I haven't the largest clothing store, but I do claim to keep goods to suit all classes. I now have clothing, gent's furnishings, hats, caps, &c., as cheap, and cheaper, than they can be bought anywhere in Roanoke. M. Rosenberg, the workingman's clothier, 7 Salem avenue, near Jefferson street.
